

The thoroughbred is a specific breed of horse known for its beauty, speed and athletic ability. Racehorses are very proud of their family trees and can trace them back hundreds of years. A horse's father is called his "sire", his mother is called his "dam", his grandparents "Grandsire" and "Granddam". Pretend you are a racehorse and fill in this tree with your "sire", "dam", and grandparents.